A meeting of the members of the IQAC was held on 17/8/2022 at 11 M AM at the IQAC to discuss and assess the advantages and disadvantages of the Academic Bank of Credits as proposed by the UGC as well as the State government. At the outset the chairman of IQAC, Prof. Ajay Singh welcomed the members and apprised them of the provisions of the ABC. He spoke at length about how the ABC can be tremendously beneficial in terms of transfer of credits of students. The members agreed that the adoption of ABC is the need of the hour and a step towards quality as well as internationalization of education. They were of the opinion that the adoption of ABC shall make students' mobility from one institution to another more transparent and hassle-free saving their time as well as resources. Some members however pointed out few loopholes in the system like the provision of credit transfer among only NAAC accredited institutions. None-the less it was resolved that the University shall adopt the provisions of ABC after few amendments and through its academic bodies.
