A Snapshot

I have wide and varied experience in the field of higher education, academic administration, management and research of approximately fifteen years. My job responsibilities include innovative teaching, research and guidance. I consider myself as an accomplished academician with skills in General Management. I have scripted some remarkable success stories in terms of launching and developing department, designing and starting up new courses, introducing newer concepts, building networks, and managing people. I possess a flair for teaching and am committed to it. I am adept in Man management, an able team builder with natural leadership qualities. With an eye for details, teaching and research come naturally to me. I have faced challenges and have given a commendable performance. I have had the opportunities to learn from interactions with distinguished academicians, experts and leaders.

I am a workaholic with a deep sense of commitment. I am gifted with unlimited energy and enthusiasm. Being a self-starter I am adept in taking measured risks. People recognize me as an intelligent, knowledgeable and committed person. I have been generally regarded as a dependable person and am able to carry a task to its logical conclusion. I work in a given time frame and remain focussed on what I am doing. I have the ability to adapt with new technologies and environments. I am adept in successfully developing and maintaining cross functional & cross cultural relationships with a team spirit.

I have high tolerance to ambiguous work situations. Quick learning curves are my natural reflexes. This has helped me foray successfully into any activity I set my eyes on and lay my hands upon. At all places, I have been able to infuse fresh and out-of-the-box thinking and function as a Catalyst. I have been recognized and respected as a symbol of success, by virtue of my incessant urge of perfection and result oriented approach. Coming from a family of academic background, I am an avid reader and writer.

My varied and rich multifunctional experiences have honed my skills and build upon the rich educational inputs and extracurricular exposures I got at my Alma Mater – Indian Institute of Technology, Kanpur and University of Allahabad.

I have an urge to pay back to the society all that it is given to me.

I have a vision TO HELP BUILD UP AND LIVE IN AN ENVIRONMENT WHERE EVERY INDIVIDUAL CAN HAVE THE OPPORTUNITY TO BECOME WHAT HE OR SHE WANTS TO BE.

CONTINUOUS EDUCATION AND CONTACT PROGRAMME

I have adopted a village "Panchkheda" in Padrauna in Kushinagar district. In this village a team of volunteers are working on various dimensions of community participation for rural upliftment. Notable among the development interventions initiated in the village are micro credit, innovation in agriculture, philanthropy and amelioration of primary education. After the adoption of the village rural upliftment and development can be well gauged in the adopted village. There has been tremendous improvement in the quality of life of the villagers and the increased sense of community participation and we feeling in the village.
