

“7 Days Training Program on Employability Skills for Women”

Date: 26th October 2024

The Training Program on Employability Skills for Women under the flagship of Mission Shakti (Phase 5) on 26th Oct 2024, was held at Banking & Insurance(B&I), Department of Commerce, D.D.U. Gorakhpur University, Gorakhpur. Today's session covered the topics like, Collaboration Skills and Critical Thinking.

The Trainer from the Naandi Foundation, Mr. Amit Uttarani Mr. Ankit Puri and Mohd Shaqib emphasized on the role of Coordination and Collaboration in workplace. Students were learned about, how they can work well with the others and collectively achieve the common goal. Trainers arranged the activities to develop the collaborative skills among the students and provide them a real time experience, through the role playing. They made students aware about meeting the project deadlines and building the relationships, resolving the conflicts and creating a congenial work culture where everyone feel included and respected.

Continuing further with the session, the trainers highlighted that critical thinking is now mandatory for working in today's work place. Trainers promoted the ability to analyze, interpret, evaluate, and make judgement according to the prevalent situation. Student learnt about decision tree and its application in developing a rational approach towards different scenarios, which they are likely to face in the workplace.

The entire session has been concentrated towards developing Collaborative skills and promoting critical thinking in different situations. The Coordinator of B&I , Dr. Maneesh Kumar and the faculties of B&I Dr. Abhishek Kumar, Dr. Anshika Mishra, Dr. Farozan, Dr. Sarika Gupta and Ms. Khushbu Verma were present throughout the session.

