

“7 Days Training Program on Employability Skills for Women”

Date: 28th October 2024

The Closing session of Training Program on Employability Skills for Women under the flagship of Mission Shakti (Phase 5) was organized on 28th Oct 2024, held at Banking & Insurance(B&I), Department of Commerce, D.D.U. Gorakhpur University, Gorakhpur. The entire Training Program was successfully coordinated under the guidance of Prof. (Major) Vinita Pathak, Nodal Officer for Mission Shakti (Phase 5). The session was concluded in two phases. In the First phase of the session, students presented their PowerPoint Presentation on various assigned topics like, basic communication skills, emotional intelligence, digital identity etc. and students also give their feedback about their learning during the training program. Students also prepared Poster on topics like, internet of Things, Digital Marketing, E-Commerce and etc.

The second phase of the session was concluded in seminar hall of Department of Commerce, D.D.U. GU. The session was chaired by Head and Dean, Department of Commerce Prof. S.V. Pathak, the Coordinator of B & I Dr. Maneesh Kumar, Prof. Anil Kumar Yadav, Prof. Rajeev Prabhakar and Dr. Harshdev Verma. The Faculties of Commerce Dr. Suman Kannoujiya, Dr. Rahul Mishra and other were also present there. The trainers from Naandi Foundation, Mr. Amit Uttarani Mr. Ankit Puri and Mohd Shaqib together with the Faculty of Commerce felicitated the students of the training program with the certificates and Prizes were given to the students on their overall performance based on the criteria such as Creativity, Discipline, Presentation, Leadership and Communication skill etc. during the training period.

The closing ceremony was hosted by Dr. Anshika Mishra and final Vote of Thanks was given by Dr. Sarika Gupta. The entire session was coordinated by faculty of B&I, Dr. Abhishek Kumar, Dr. Farozan and Ms. Khushbu Verma.

