

75th Republic Day

26th January, 2024

The 75th Republic Day was celebrated with grandeur and patriotic fervor at Deen Dayal Upadhyaya Gorakhpur University. The event was organized under the visionary leadership of Professor Poonam Tandon, Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor, and Professor (Maj.) Vineeta Pathak, along with the 5/15 UP Girls Battalion NCC.

The celebrations commenced with the hoisting of the national flag by Professor Poonam Tandon, accompanied by the NCC cadets' salute and the singing of the national anthem. In her inspiring address, the Vice-Chancellor highlighted the significance of the Republic Day, emphasizing the values of democracy and the role of citizens in building a progressive nation.

Professor (Maj.) Vineeta Pathak guided the NCC cadets in organizing a disciplined and impressive parade that showcased the spirit of patriotism and unity. The cultural program featured performances by students, including patriotic songs, dances, and speeches, celebrating India's diversity and democratic achievements. The event concluded with a pledge led by the NCC cadets and faculty members to uphold the values enshrined in the Constitution. The celebration reflected the collective pride and commitment of the university community toward the nation.
