Brief Write-up in English	A special lecture on “Economic Thinkers and Their Contributions” was organized by the Department of Economics. The session aimed to provide students with insights into the lives, ideas, and lasting impact of renowned economists such as Adam Smith, Karl Marx, John Maynard Keynes, Amartya Sen, and others. The resource person, explained complex economic theories in a simplified manner and highlighted how these thinkers shaped modern economic thought. Students gained a deeper understanding of concepts like capitalism, socialism, Keynesian economics, and welfare economics. The lecture encouraged critical thinking and drew connections between historical ideas and present-day economic challenges. An interactive Q&A session followed, where students actively engaged with the speaker. The event was informative, thought-provoking, and well-received by both students and faculty. It successfully enriched my academic learning and sparked my interest in the study of economics.
