

Report of Finance Club Activity

Theme: Should Freelancers and Content Creators Be Taxed Differently?

Department of Business Administration

Deen Dayal Upadhyaya Gorakhpur University, Gorakhpur

Department of Business Administration
Deen Dayal Upadhyaya Gorakhpur University

Organises
Finance Club Activity
Theme: Should Freelancers and Content Creators be taxed differently?
Date: 26/07/2025, Time: 11:00 am

Prof. Manish Kumar Srivastava
Head of Department

Dr. Sushil Kumar Singh
Finance Club Coordinator

Dr. Purnima Mishra
Finance Club Coordinator

As a part of the Finance Club Activity, the Department of Business Administration, Deen Dayal Upadhyaya Gorakhpur University, organized a Group Discussion on the thought-provoking topic “Should Freelancers and Content Creators be Taxed Differently?” on July 27, 2025. The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from MBA students, who engaged in a healthy exchange of ideas and perspectives on the nuances of taxation policies applicable to the emerging digital and gig economy.

The participants deliberated on various dimensions of the topic, including the economic contribution of freelancers and content creators, the challenges of tax compliance, and the need for policy reforms to ensure fairness and inclusivity in the taxation system. The discussion aimed to develop critical thinking, analytical reasoning, and communication skills among students, while also enhancing their understanding of contemporary issues in finance and taxation.

The session was conducted under the chairmanship of Prof. Manish Kumar Srivastava, Head, Department of Business Administration and coordinated by Dr. Purnima Mishra and Dr. Sushil Kumar Singh. Such academic initiatives by the Finance Club play a vital role in bridging theoretical knowledge with practical understanding, thereby nurturing future managers with a comprehensive outlook on current financial and economic developments.

Prof. Manish Kumar Srivastava
Head